David Reade QC

David is a leading employment and commercial law silk. His practice, which covers the full remit of both employment and commercial litigation matters, has a particular focus on matters relating to restrictive covenants, TUPE, industrial action and union recognition, discrimination and pension issues. He is a joint author of The Law of Industrial Action and Trade Union Recognition" (OUP) and is a contributor to Sweet and Maxwell's "The Law of Transfer of Undertakings".

Alexander Robson

Alexander's practice covers the range of employment issues, with an emphasis on redundancy (both individual and collective), unfair dismissal and discrimination. A recent secondment to the in-house legal team of an international recruitment company gives him a unique and practical insight into employment law from the client's perspective.

Lydia Carter

Lydia undertakes work in all areas of employment law and is instructed by both claimants and respondents at all stages of proceedings. Lydia has experience in a range of employment matters including full hearings and pre-hearing reviews dealing with strike out applications, TUPE transfers and equal pay as well as all aspects of unfair dismissal and constructive dismissal.

The seminar will be followed by a drinks reception giving you the opportunity to meet with the speakers and other members of Littleton Chambers.
