Speakers

Andrew Stafford QC

One of the UK's most highly regarded experts in City and other employment issues, Andrew Stafford is described by legal directories as being giving "clear and effective advice, getting to grips with complex issues extremely quickly". Joint author with Stuart Ritchie of "Fiduciary Duties: Directors & Employees".

Jeremy Lewis

Jeremy's practice covers all forms of employment law in the employment tribunal and civil courts, and also before the CAC. He acted in the judicial reviews of CAC decisions in R v CAC ex parte Kwik Fit (GB) Limited and in R v CAC ex parte BBC. He is recommended in employment law by Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners and described in the directories as "shrewd and determined" and "exacting, commercial and good on his feet".

Martin Palmer

Formerly a solicitor with nine years post-qualification at City firms, Martin has a wealth of experience in employment and commercial law including TUPE, contractual bonuses, pensions and share options, post-termination restrictions and discrimination.
